

REMARKS

Entry of the proposed amendments to the specification above is respectfully requested. It is submitted that the proposed amendments are to correct obvious typographical errors. Support for the correction in claim 22 is found in paragraph {0011} of the specification. In claim 16, "comprises" had replaced "comprise" to make the claim grammatically correct.

The amendment to the claims are merely formal matter correction and do not involve new matter or change the scope of the claimed invention and involve no substantial new work on the part of the USPTO.

For the reason set forth above, entry of the proposed amendments and passing of the application to issuance is respectfully requested.
